

EASTER SERVICES IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY

Easter, the day of reassurance, salvation and life, power, hope and joy in the Christian church, will be celebrated tomorrow with services in keeping with and appropriate to the resurrection. The church in the week just closed has followed the Christ in His triumphal entry into Jerusalem, has seen Him betrayed and suffer the agony of Gethsemane and hanged to the cross for the salvation of His people. Easter day witnesses the resurrection, the return to life and joy.

Special programs have been prepared to be rendered at the various hours of worship in the churches, with the singing of cantatas, special masses and Easter music by choirs and soloists.

The pastors have selected Easter themes for their discourses and the church edifices will be sweet with the perfume of lilies and flowers that speak of the resurrection, the new life.

Programs in the various churches have been announced as follows:

GRACE LUTHERAN.

The resurrection of the Lord will be commemorated in Grace Lutheran church, Rev. L. O. Notthstein, pastor, with the sacrament of holy communion at 10:30, when the catechumens who were received on Palm Sunday, will make their first communion. The new confirmation class will be organized at the regular Sunday school hour at 9:15. A special vesper service will be rendered at 7:45 by the Sunday school and the choir.

FIRST SWEDISH LUTHERAN.

The first service of the day at the First Swedish Lutheran church will be the Sunday school at 9:30 followed by the morning worship at 10:45 when the choir will render two special songs, "They Have Taken Away My Lord," by Stainer, and "From the Grave Where Jesus Lay," by Danks. Mrs. H. W. Clemann will render a solo, "Shepherd King," with piano and organ accompaniment. The sermon will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. Karl Nilsson. At the evening service at 7:30 the choir will render an Easter cantata entitled "Lord of Light and Love" by Edwards, the program for which is as follows:

SET ABOUT WITH LILLIES

BY MARY AQUIN.

Nineteen hundred years He is risen has triumphantly followed the rehearsal of the greatest tragedy ever enacted. Each year the truth grows more poignant and fewer escape a sense of the agony as presented by faithful disciples throughout the weeks of Lent.

In our own community eye saw 1,700 swayed with emotion as the Paul of today walked with them the weary way of the Cross and pointed His bleeding footsteps. It was but one gathering of many where the story of our gentle Lord was being reviewed, in the intensity of those last weeks on earth.

Some come a little closer, others are hearing Him, some touch the hem of His garment in these last few days of the Passion. None that listens may remain unmoved by the simple narrative of the kindly priests read on Good Friday, and it is followed breathlessly with opened hearts as the pathetic prophecy is made of Peter and the discouragement at them who will not wait an hour with Him.

All partake of the sense of guilt and all do gladly give Him homage Easter morn and try to show by their part in the drama of today that He is risen. Happy-faced little children strew His way with flowers, the Eastern anemion rises higher toward heaven. His feet are set about with lilies.

Has it no significance that two old women, in threadbare attire, leaning upon one another for support, their worn bodies almost done with this life, have wended their steps through chilly rains as well as pleasant day each morning to the Sanctuary and watched an hour with Him? What is it that they bring; and what is it that they

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Rock Island evidence—doubly proven. Mrs. F. Pracher, 214 Thirteenth street, Rock Island, says: "My back and head ached and I had dizzy and nervous spells. Nights I was restless and mornings I felt miserable. When I stooped over I could hardly straighten up again. I kept getting worse until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon made me feel better, and as I kept on taking them, I became stronger in every way." (Statement given May 17, 1912.)

On Jan. 6, 1915, Mrs. Pracher said: "I have every bit as much faith in Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did when I recommended them some years ago. Whenever I feel backache coming on, Doan's Kidney Pills give me prompt relief. I have advised others to try this medicine and to my knowledge they have all been benefited."

Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the name that I have every bit as much faith in. Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did when I recommended them some years ago. Whenever I feel backache coming on, Doan's Kidney Pills give me prompt relief. I have advised others to try this medicine and to my knowledge they have all been benefited."
